ieneral Scott and the Permsylvania State Whig Convent As Item in the Presidential Programme—The Philode City and County Delegations, Anti-Lewis to a Man-Webster's Position—General Walbridge, 4c.

General Scott will be nominated for the Presidency by the Whig State Convention of Pennsylvania, which will assemble at Lancaster on the 23d instant.

The programme contains this important provision:— When the hepo of Chippewa and Lundy's Lane in the North, and of Vera Cruz, Cerra Gordo, and Puebla. Chepullepec, Molino del Rey, and Mexico, in the South, shall be asked whether he is a Union man and a friend of the compression or not, he will point to his long line of services in the North and in the South, as a sufficient the Union or not. No more than this will he say. If his countrymen are afraid to trust him upon these testials, they will have his consent to give their support nebody else for the Presidency. Present appear-atrongly indicate that both General Scott and Webster willbe run for the Presidency by their to somebody else for the Presidency Present appearance strongly indicate that both General Scott and Mr. Webster willbe run for the Presidency by their respective friends.

Mr. Webster will have some friends from the city and county of Philadelphia, in the Laucaster Convention, but not enough to do him any good. Were he to go at once out of the cabinet, instead of waiting until January next, as his friends here say he will, it might be different. It seems that the two delegations to the State Convention from Philadelphia city and county, were all elected upon the issue of Lewis or anti-Lewis, and that both delegations are anti-Lewis to a man. Mr. Sanderson, the publisher, and Mr. Flannegan, the editor, of the Ness, which is so bitter against Mr. Collector Lewis are among the delegates. So are Mesers Stokes and Myors, who were among those who signed the charges against Mr. Lewis. Those two delegations, with all their preforence for Mr. Webster, will probably go with the rest for General Scott's nomination, in part to spite the administration for retaining Mr. Sollector Lewis in office.

Mr. Lewis and his friend, Mr. William B. Reed, the District Attorney, are the gentlemen who, it is said, came down here and misde pledges that they would take care that General Scott should not get the nomination for the Presidency by the Pennsylvania State Convention. They could manage the matter with the delegations of Philadelphia city and county, and also with the convention. Well, Mr. Reed was a candidate for the cenvention before the primary assemblage in Philadelphia city and county of sign of the Memory of the American representation at London. He has a wast fund of sights to tell about, but can't stop now to do so. He goes back in the next steamer, as he has been invited to deliver a Fourth of July oration in London, on which occasion it is hoped he will account for the pancity of the American representation at the World's Fair, by alluding to the difficulty which would attend the transportation of the best specimens of respondents—Brains versus Saudust—Qualifications for Office—Party Conception—The Independent Press, etc The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser is terribly severe upon the Washington correspondence of the New York Heroid, and instances a recent statement with regard to Mr. Kingman's refusal to accept a situation in the State Department as a proof of the mendacity of the Herald's dents Now, the Herald has three or four corcondents here, and the writer of this letter was not writer of the letter alluded to by the Advertiser; and it is for this reason that he deems it necessary to say that so far as Mr. Kingman's declination of the office is concerned, it was a report put in circulation by Mr gman himself, who, whilst grateful to Mr. Webster for the offer, declared he could not arcept the appoint, ment, as it carried with it the necessity of abandoning his correspondence, as well as closing his agency business. As for Mr Kingman's right to an auditorship, as claimed by the Heroid's correspondent in question. I do not know that Mr. Kingman has any peculiar claims on the administration; but certain it is, that as far as takent is concerned, there are very few gentlemen connected with the press who would not be much better qualified for auditorships than four-fifths of those who now occups such posts, and who never would have been appointed if ability ever was considered a necessary qualification, either by whig or democratic administrations. But the truth is, that the offices of the government are filled, under all administrations, by mere political favorities—cons and brothers of members of Congress, or hangers on of aspiring politicians; or, if the Secretary happens to be of a kindly disposition, now and then some poor destitute devil;—and it is merely a chance that any competent men get offices at all—a chance not depending upon the fact of their having brains, instead of sawdust, under their hats; but because they happen to have friends at court. No administration can well be held accountable for such a state of things. Its origin is with the people themselves, who too often send mere adventures to Congress, who, when they get here, try how much money they can extract for themselves and their friends, from the public treasury. It would be a curiosity, which would throw the wouly horse, Barnum's mermaid or Joice Heth, completely in the shade, to find a person in office who got there solely because of his ability.

To attack the Heroid because some of its correspondent may make statements upon mistaken or faise data, is askinke in the extreme. The Heroid publishes and comments upon news with that independence which can alone be found out of the party presess, whether that news tells against friend or for; and, so far as the experience of the writer for the offer, declared he could not accept the appoint, ment, as it carried with it the necessity of abandoning

Affairs at the State Capital. OUR ALBANY CORRESPONDENCE.

ALRANY, June 16, 1851. The First Division of Militia to be Extended, Improved and Re-organized-A General-in-Chief to be Created-A half dozen Major Generals, and any quantity of Brigadiers.

This morning, Dr. Brandreth, who is believed to be a staff officer in Major General Ward's division, introduced a bill in the Senate, which was referred to the Military Committee of which Colonel Crolius is chairman, which contemplates a radical change in the present organization of the First Division. Believing that a large por-tion of the citizens of New York entertain a lively interest in all matters relating to the military discipline of rest in all matters relating to the military discipline of their citizen soldery. I take this early occasion of informing them of the attempt which is now, being made to produce a disorganization.

The bill provides for extending the boundaries of the First Division, so as to embrace the whole of Long Island, which together with the counties of New York and Richmond, are to embrace one command, to be denominated the First Military Department of the Militia of the State of New York. An officer, to be commissioned and known as General-in-Chief, is to be the commundant, and the present organization to be disbanded, and new divisions, brigades and regiments to be formed. The bill also proposes to elect a board of officers and a secretary, the latter of whom to be substituted for the receiver of taxes and county treasurers, to receive the combill also proposes to esect a hourd of officers tary, the latter of whom to be substituted for the receiver of taxes and county treasurers, to receive the commutation fund. In order that the officers and privates interested in this movement may fully understand the provisions of the bill, and examine it in detail. I have concluded to send a copy, in order that every one may see and understand the movements making at the capital at this extra session. The following is an exact

An Act to provide for the organization of the First Mili-tary Department of the Militia of the State of New York.

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:—

Section 1. The First Mulitary Department shall comprise the counties of New York, Kings, Queens, Suffolk and Richmond.

Section 2. The several uniform corps now, or hereafter to be, organized within this department, shall under the direction of the Commander-in-Chief, be organized into regiments, brigades and divisions each brigade to consist of two regiments, and each division into two brigades. The various arms shall be classified, each by itself.

Section 3. The uniform corps of this department shall, at all times, be subject to the orders of its officers, for the purpose of repelling invasion, in suppressing sedition or riot, under the direction of the civil authorities. The department shall be commanded by a General-in-Chief. Section 4. Each corps of this department shall have assigned to it its proper district of territory, agreeable to existing law.

department shall be commanded by a General-in-Chief.
Section 6. Kach corps of this department shall have assigned to it its proper district of territory, agreeable to existing laws.
Section 5. The board of officers shall consist of the commandant of the department, who shall be president thereof, and the commandants of divisions brigades and regiments. The secretary of said board shall be annually elected by ballot. In addition to his duties in said board, he shall perform all the duties now imposed upon the receiver of taxes, other civel officers, commandants of regiments and companies, with reference to the ununiformed militia of this department, excepting only the annual parade thereof. The said secretary shall, at least conce in each year, report to the commission of juries in the city of New York, the names of all persons residing therein subject to jury duty, coming to his knowledge.
The commission of juries aforesaid shall, in like manner, report to said secretary the names of all persons inside to military duty.
Section 5. The uniform corps of this department shall parade for improvement, at least eight and not more than twelve times in each year; two of such parades shall be by order of the commander of the department, two by divisions two by brigades, and the residue by regiments of companies, as the commandants of the several regiments may direct.

Section 1. Each uniform troop and company of this de-ments may direct.

Section 7. Each uniform troop and company of this department, in rotation shall perform at least one day's carrison or field duty, in each year, at such fort or bar-racks as the district board of otherer may provide; or indefault thereof, as the commandants of regiments may default thereof, as the direct.

Section 9. No existing troop or company shall be disbanded, unless in the opinion of the commandant of the division, brigade and regiment to which it shall be attached, the good of the service require it.

Section 9. This set shall not, in any manner, apply to

Riot and Bloodshed at Red Bank-Fugitive from Blackwell's

Island—Forgery, etc.

A terrible affray occurred last night at the Grove Castie, a public house, at Red Bank, N. J., kept by John Cartie, a public house, at Red Bank, N. J., kept by John

A. Diver. A company of about a hundred, one fourth being females, went to Red Bank last evening on a cotilion party, and had a dance in the hallroom of Grove Castle. Everything went on peaceably until about one o'clock, when a fight commenced between two of the party, and the landlord, interfering to preserve order, received what is supposed to be a fatal stab. The rowdles then set upon the barkeepers, all of when were more or less injured, two very seriously. The tables and chairs were broken to pieces, and used as clube; bottles were thrown about in every direction, and the windows of the hotel broken. The roters added robbery to their outrage, by plundering the money drawers of all they contained,—about $150. The sheriff, Mr. John Eyles, on learning the facts of the case, summoned a porse, and succeeded in arresting eighteen of the party, who will have a chance of tasting Jersey justice. The party dubbed themselves the Fredonia Assembly, but were mostly runners with the Franklin engine.

Win Bloomer, or Blumme, was held to await a requisi-

Assembly, but were mostly runners with the engine.

Wim. Bloomer, or Blumme, was held to await a requisition from Governor Fish, of New York, by Mayor Gilpin, this merning. He is a fugitive from Blackwell's Island. A successful forgery upon the Philadelphia Bank, by John Carrell. a young Irishman, was perpetrated yesterday. The name of Daniel W. Coxe, Esq., was forged to a check for $1,000.

The Opera at Castle Garden.

The opera is continued with spirit. Last night, in presence of another fashionable audience, "Marino Fallero" was produced, with fine effect. The music is not yet familiar, but it has many massive beauties. The duet between Marini and Beneventano, and many other parts, were warmly applauded. Marini particularly distinguished himself; and the orchestra, led by Arditt, did efficient service. There was great enthusiasm excited by the performance generally. To-night "Lucrezia Borgia" is to be represented with a powerful cast, and we doubt not that there will be another fashionable and a crowded auditory.

Theatrical and Musical.

Theatrical and Musical.

Bowers Theatre.—The receipts of this evening's perfermance are for the benefit of Miss Hiffert, a very pleasing vocalist, and general favorite with the patrons of the Bowery. Three excellent pieces are announced, namely, the new and successful drama called the "Dream of hife," the comedicita of the "Young Scamp," and the celebrated melo-drama entitled the "Miller and his Mea," together with a variety of pleasing sentimental and comic songs. This is a powerfully attractive bill, and no doubt Miss Hiffert will have a bumper.

Broadway Theatre.—The entertainments for this eweding are, as usual, exceedingly attractive. They commence with the farce of "Shocking Events," in which Davidge, the excellent comedian together with Miss Gougenheim, will appear. The next feature will be the romantic and operatic spectacle of "Azael," which, from its moral tendency, is drawing excellent houses every night. To see the stupendous interior of the Temple of Isis in its unrivalled splendor, is worth the price of admission. Conway, as Azael, has acquired great popularity; his conception and acting are nightly rewarded with cheers.

Nex. of Sarden.—The celebrated Ravels and the remission. Conway, as Aracl. has acquired great popularity; his conception and acting are nightly rewarded with cheers.

Nislo's Garden.—The celebrated Ravels and the renowned Gabriel are to appear again this evening in two of their most attractive pieces, together with their daring evolutions on the tight rope. Every night that this wonderful family have appeared, the theatre has been crowded aimost to suffication, and the applause bestowed on the performances exceeded all we have ever heard. The Fisherman's Dream" and "Vol-au-Vent," are the features to-night National. Therapier.—Another excellent entertainment is announced for this evening at this favorite establishment, commencing with the beautiful drama entitled "Suean Hopley." in which Mrs. Malinda Jones will sustain the character of Suean Hopley. This will be followed by the drama of the "Adopted Child." Mr. Scott personating the part of Michael, and the amusements will terminate with the petite comedy of the Forest Rose," with Mr. Hickey performing the part of Jonathan.

Jonathan.

Bacconan's Lycrem.—The attractions offered to-night at this favorite Thespian temple, embrace a host of talent seldom witnessed in one entertainment; they comprise the names of Miss Julia Bennett, Miss M. Taylor, Miss Julia Bould Mrs. Benugham, Mrs. Vernon, Mr. Brougham, Mr. Jordan, and Mr. Lynne. The leading feature will be the successful drama styled the "Ladies Battle," A favorite dance will be executed by Mr. Fletcher and Miss M. Tayleure, and the performance will conclude with the popular piece called the "Home Book of Beauty"

Beauty "Beauty" Muskum.—Javelli and Herr Cline, with four new farces, and the "Happy Family" of dogs, squirrels, rats, cats, owls, sparrows, bears, raccoons, monkeys, &c., living quietly in the same cage, are the novelties of the week, and will undoubtedly draw excellent houses. The programme consists of a class of performances peculiarly adapted to this establishment. We see that to-morrow, Leon Javelii and the other members of the "Aerial Gymnasium" appear in the afternoon as well as in the evening.

Gymnasium" appear in the afternoon as well as in the evening.

Christy's Minstrakis will sing some of their best songs this evening; good dancing, good music and good burlenques are also offered.

Fillows' Minstrakis and the New Obleans Schenaris will give an afternoon and evening performance today. A fine programme is offered.

Binkert or Mas. A. Dardos.—The friends of the late Mr. Adrastus Driggy, who has been, for some years, the engineer of the Broadway Theatre, have, in the kindest manner, used their influence, in order to evince their sympathy for his widow, by getting her a benefit at the lireadway Theatre, which will take place on Saturday evening next. Several distinguished artists have volunteered, and the programme is exceedingly attractive.

Shir Catharine, Wilson, for Charleston, SC, in endeavoring to get under weigh at Smithville, NC, drifted ashore and was still aground at last advices.

Bank Emira Birson, for New York, struck by lightning in Mohile bay, had NO bales of cotton on board. The electric fluid ran down the mast, and communicated with the cotton, which not being compressed, at once took fire and bornt with great rapidity. Before any effort sould be made to suppress the fiames, they had spread so extensively that there was no means left of saving the vessel or any part of the cargo, except by scuttling her. This was immediately done. Meanwhile the steamer Swan came promptly to the assistance of the burning craft, and succeeded in getting off the passenger's baggage, which was all on beard, and in taking off the officers and crew. The E M and her cargo were partially if not fully insured and there will be no great loss except to the underwriters.

to which her sex is subject. (Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, Ohle.)

Dr. A. M. Mauricrau:

My Dran Sin: — My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her greet acquisis and suffering some months before and during her connemons; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. Isupposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this ime inw about two mentals, It heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some mattern reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, i cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages impurted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomenuz previded a remedy. It opened a prospect to me, which I little conceived was peasible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all humas probability, my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left metherless.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the rarious antijects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage.
